CASE No.: 2:10-cv-10978-PJD-MJH

STEVEN WOODWARD,

Defendant,

Dear Honorable Judge Duggan,

I would like to request an extension on my last request for a Leave of Absents to July 31st, 2010.

Due to the vast amounts of data and unreturned inquiries I need for my defense, my financial position, lack of legal experience, and time for work; I need more time to adequately prepare my rebuttal, reply to these allegations.

Christine E Fortney (cfortney@cardellilaw.com) sent me documentation "copy-plaintiff's verified complaint and ex parte request for temporary restraining order – processed – 3-11-10.pdf" but did not sent me any of the exhibits supporting their claim.

The plaintiff sent this notification to me on March 31st, 2010 so I would like to request time off from April 15th, 2010 until July 31st, 2010 to ensure I do not miss any legal requirements for submitting my rebuttal. After my return from work I may even be able to hire an attorney, at least to review my rebuttal and evidence before I submit it to the courts to ensure I am not violating any court rules or laws.

Thank you for your time,

Sincerely,

Steven Woodward
